Each eLearning course meets district requirements and state curriculum. Each lesson is taught virtually by a content certified instructor utilizing video lectures, web based reinforcement, vocabulary, instructional examples, guided practice, and assessment. Students always know their progress and work is graded instantly. Popular features of Edgenuity courses include pausing and rewathing lectures, taking and using eNotes, reviewing and taking assessments until the material is mastered.

Students also have the additional support of an eLearning facilitator. This is an experienced eLearning certified teacher who provides student motivation, encouragement and support in developing the skills needed to navigate through their coursework.

One of the true benefits of online learning is having the flexibility of 24 hour access anywhere a computer can access the Internet. Students should expect to invest a minimum of 45-60 hours to complete each course (students needing to retake assessments to achieve mastery will need significantly more time) and be present in the eLearning lab to take tests and the final exam. Upon enrollment, students will receive information regarding lab hours.

Exams must be monitored. Appointments will be made to facilitate the taking of exams.

No assessments will be available to students at home.

Students are expected to complete their courses by August 13, 2020.
